

Jenni McLeod

0448 515 867

beecollectivetas@gmail.com

Projects

2020-current

Director, AusCycling

Appointee to the Board of cycling's National Sporting Organisation due to commence October 1, 2020.

2019 – current

Planning Advisory Group – Hobart City Council

Member of an expert panel developing mountain bike trail concept plans in collaboration with other users on kunanyi/Mt Wellington. Budget- $1million.

2019 – current

Panel member, Glenorchy City Council

Expert Advisory Panel, Glenorchy Mountain Bike Park Masterplan

2017-current

Shredding Betties

Founder of Australia's first women's mountain bike club. Creating a platform for women and girls to connect, support and inspire. Developing sustainable management systems with a volunteer team.

2017-current

Plugged In

Initiated a forum and podcast series to connect community and unlock capacity. 5 forums successfully completed with a podcast series continuing to connect community members.

2016-current

The Bee Book

Established Bee Literate Tasmania partnership. Successfully developed, implemented, and coordinated the 'Bee Book' project. Book has sold out twice, a grant round was established, and authors were nominated for Tasmanian Community Achievement awards.

Jenni McLeod

Employment

2019-Current

Founder

The Bee Collective

- Establishing a small business
- Undertaking pollinator research, advocacy, and education
- Facilitating workshops
- Initiating and driving campaigns
- Working in collaboration with peak bodies
- Developing marketing and communication plans
- Establishing a brand and developing products

2011-Sept. 2019

Electorate Officer and Campaign Manager

Office of Scott Bacon MP

- Establishing community engagement strategies
- Developing and managing projects
- Developing, implementing and managing successful campaigns
- Establishing and maintaining stakeholder and constituent relationships
- Managing and leading volunteers
- Event and financial management
- Developing social media content
- Developing and maintaining webpage and content
- Mentoring, and connecting community towards a collective goal
- Developing and implementing internal policies and procedures
- Designing and implementing fundraising activities

2009-2011

Office of Lin Thorp MLC

Electorate Officer

- Managing staff
- Establishing systems and frameworks to transition to electronic record keeping

2004-2009

STEPS Employment and Training

Manager-Sorell and Rosny

- Managing operations across two offices, overseeing government contracts, assisting with tender writing processes, managing staff KPIs, ensuring successful outcomes for staff and clients, building a cohesive team.

2002-2005

Derwent Valley Apiaries

Beekeeper

Jenni McLeod

Education

2018:	Managing Successful Projects NDA
2007:	Certificate IV Employment Services
2001:	Graduate Diploma Outdoor Education Latrobe University, Bendigo
1993:	Bachelor Social Science (socio-environmental assessment and policy) RMIT, Melbourne

Other Work Experience

2019	Campaign volunteer Glenorchy Skate Park. Successfully retrieved $250,000 of public funding
2017-2018	Women's Development Officer Hobart Wheelers/Dirt Devils Cycling Club
2009-2018	Secretary and Committee Member South Arm Peninsula Residents Association
2009-2015	Volunteer South Arm Coastcare
2005-current	Trail builder and Event volunteer Kellevie mountain bike park
2001-2007	Volunteer Migrant Resource Centre

Interests

Mountain Bike riding, beekeeping, sailing, gardening, hiking, community development.

